CLASH WITH COMBINE.

Strike Began Which May Involve the Gigantic Steel Trust.

MOMENTOUS EVENT IN LABOR WORLD

President Shaffer of Amalgamated Association Declares He Will Call Out All Allied Workmen If Necessary to Win the Strike.

Pittsburg, April 15.—As a result of a dispute that for a week has involved employees of the W. Dewees Wood plant of the American Sheet Steel company at McKeesport, about half of the men are on strike and operation of the plant is badly crippled. The cause of the trouble was the recent discharge of seven men who, the men claim, were dismissed because they are members of the newly organized lodge of the Amalgamated association. All is quiet about the works. None of the strikers are loitering about the mill and there is no prospect of trouble. Members of the firm say they will continue to operate their plants, and if they are troubled by strikers at McKeesport they will ship their material elsewhere for manufacture. The mill employs about 800 men.

The event is looked on as momentous throughout the iron and steel trade of the country from the fact that it is the first conflict between organized labor and the United States steel corporation, and because of the announced intention of President T. J. Shaffer, the head of the Amalgamated Association of Iron, Steel and Tin Workers to up every plant of the combine, steel, tin, tube, structural iron, wire, and all, if necessary, to win the fight for the association.

As to the chance that the men in all the mills of the United States steel corporation will be called out no one connected with the management of any of the organized plants in the new corporation will consent to be quoted. The only underlying companies in the new corporation, whose mills are entirely independent of the Amalgamated association are the Carnegie interests and the National Tube company. The mills of the American Steel Hoop company, the American Tin Plate company and the Republic Iron and Steel company are all organized, while most of those of the American Sheet company and the National steel company are all organized. National Steel, American Steel and Wire and American Bridge plants work under the Amalgamated association. Most of the American Steel and Wire plants are controlled by the rod mill men and their association.

Unknown to Arthur.
Cleveland, April 15.—Grand Chief Arthur of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers says he received no official information concerning the reported settlement of the grievances of the engineers and firemen on the Central railroad of New Jersey. "If the newspaper reports are true," said Mr. Arthur, "and the engineers and firemen have settled, leaving the trainmen and telegraphers to shift for themselves, a great mistake has been made. The chiefs of the five organizations represented on the road entered into a written agreement to work together in the matter. In other words, all the organizations were to be included in any adjustment of grievances. As a result of this agreement the engineers and firemen could not honorably settle without the consent of the other organization."

Western Strike to Go On.
Indianapolis, April 15.—The executive board of the United Mine Workers of America, in session here, has decided to continue the strike in the bituminous coal fields of Kansas, Arkansas and Indian Territory. This strike has been in progress more than two years, and has already cost the national organization an immense amount of money. The board has just granted provision for continuing the relief fund, with which over 3,000 miners and their families are being maintained. The strike was declared because the operators refused to grant an advance of 10 per cent, but non-union men, who were imported to take the strikers' places, were paid the increase demanded by the organization.

Pittsburg, April 15.—Window glass manufacturers are arranging for a meeting for Wednesday to consider the extension of the fire, which it has been announced will end May 11, according to the understanding between the manufacturers and National Jobbers' association. Many of the independent concerns are anxious to keep the factories open until June 15, and the general belief is that this will be done, as many requests have come in recently for the extension, and the feeling of the workmen is general that the fire should not be suspended until at least a month later.

Opera Written to Order.
Rome, April 15.—The Italia says Leon Cavello has completed an opera, ordered by Emperor William in February, 1894, entitled "Roland of Berlin," taken from the history of the Margrave, Frederick of Brandenburg. Old Prussian airs are interwoven in the music of the opera, which will shortly be placed in rehearsal in Berlin.

Strike at St. Paul.

St. Paul, April 15.—About 200 members of the St. Paul union of the Brotherhood of Painters, Paperhangers and Decorators quit work because the agreement offered the painters by the Journeymen's union Saturday has not been accepted. About one-third of the masters have signed the agreement and are employing union men.

Strike Order Ignored.

Louisville, April 15.—The coal miners in Hopkins, Christian and Webster counties, this state, were ordered some time ago by the president of the United Mine Workers to strike Monday, and had the order been obeyed about 3,000 men would have been idle. Only about 2 per cent of the miners are said to have struck, and the mines are operating as usual. The miners and the United Mine officials are at variance as to whether there should be a strike in the territory, and the order for the strike was the second that a majority of the men disobeyed.

Decree Against A. F. of L.

Philadelphia, April 15.—The supreme court of Pennsylvania in an opinion holds that members of the American Federation of Labor have no right to entice apprentices working in a factory to become members of the Glass Workers' union. The case upon which the opinion is based is an appeal of P. J. Skeily and others, members of the Glass Workers' union, from the judgment of the Allegheny county court restraining them from interfering with the apprentices of Charles L. Flaccus, a glass manufacturer at Tarentum, Pa.

Buffalo Boilermakers Strike.

Buffalo, April 15.—About 300 boilermakers, helpers and heaters, employed in local shops, went on strike for higher wages. The boilermakers struck out of sympathy. The concerns affected are A. R. Farrar, Trofts, Howard & Roberts, Ritter Brothers & Co., Eagle boiler works and Oldman & Cousins.

Shamokin Silk Mill Started.

Shamokin, Pa., April 15.—The Shamokin Silk Mill company started up after an idleness of six weeks caused by the 300 employees being locked out because they insisted on their union being recognized. The company notified the girls that their organization will be recognized.

Will Not Recognize Unions.

New York, April 15.—The Crescent Watch Case company and Courvoisier Wilcox Manufacturing company, both of New York, in whose shops a strike began last week, give notice that hereafter they will not recognize the National Engravers' and International Watchmakers' unions to which the strikers belong.

Carpenters Idle at Minneapolis.

Minneapolis, April 15.—The lockout of the union carpenters by the members of the Master Builders' association became effective Monday, and 300 men are idle. The association has 44 members, all of whom are standing by the agreement. Work on all the large contracts is at a standstill.

Genoese Ship Owners Firm.

Genoese, April 15.—At a meeting of the ship owners held here it was decided that the owners preferred to lay up their vessels rather than yield to the demands of the strikers.

Strike of Tailors Settled.

Akron, O., April 15.—At a conference Monday the strike of journeyman tailors, which lasted two months, was settled.

FRENCH REPORTED CAPTURED.

Boers Said to Have Swooped Down on British Encamped in Fog.

London, April 15.—It is said that a private telegram has been received here to the effect that General French with 500 British troops were captured by the Boers while the British were enveloped in a mist on the hills. No confirmation of the report obtained.

The war office here knows nothing about the rumored capture of General French and entirely discredits it.

Li Asks for Protection.

Peking, April 15.—Li Hung Chang has applied to General Chaffee to leave behind when he departs a sufficient number of men to police the Chinese city, as the Chinese earnestly desire their retention, fearing that the district will not be well looked after when controlled by other foreigners. An expedition consisting of 5,000 German and 3,000 French troops will leave Pao Ting Fu to drive from the province several thousand Chinese, who refused to obey the order of Li Hung Chang to keep to the boundaries that are already arranged.

Opera Written to Order.

Rome, April 15.—The Italia says Leon Cavello has completed an opera, ordered by Emperor William in February, 1894, entitled "Roland of Berlin," taken from the history of the Margrave, Frederick of Brandenburg. Old Prussian airs are interwoven in the music of the opera, which will shortly be placed in rehearsal in Berlin.

VALIDITY OF DIVORCES

Ruling of Supreme Court Affecting Question of Residence.

BONAFIDE RESIDENCE IS REQUIRED.

Dakota Divorces For Illegitimates Are Discredited—Famous Atherton Case In Kentucky Passed Upon And Atherton's Decree Sustained.

Washington, April 15.—The United States supreme court decided a number of cases involving the validity in one state of divorce decrees granted in other states. The court held practically that in cases in which the decree is granted in states, where the husband and wife have made their legal residence, it is valid in any part of the United States, but that in other cases in which there is no legal residence in the state in which the decree is granted, they are invalid. The opinions were handed down by Justice Gray, and involved the cases of Atherton vs. Atherton, Bell vs. Bell and Streilwolf vs. Streilwolf.

In the Atherton case the husband obtained a decree of divorce in Kentucky, where they resided as husband and wife, after the wife had left the husband and gone to the home of her parents in Clinton, N. Y. In his opinion Justice Gray called attention and laid stress upon the fact that Kentucky was the place of their marital residence, and he also brought out the fact that notice of the husband's petition for divorce had been forwarded to New York and that she had made no response. The Kentucky court thereupon had granted the decree. The question involved was, he said, whether the decree was valid in New York, the question having been raised by a counter proceeding of the wife for divorce in New York. He concluded that owing to the fact of her former residence in Kentucky and the fact that due notice had been given her, Mrs. Atherton was as much bound by the Kentucky decree as if she had been present in the court when it was granted. Hence the decision of the New York supreme court in favor of the wife and against the validity of the Kentucky decree was reversed.

The other two cases also came from New York. In the Bell case the question of the validity of a decree granted the husband in Pennsylvania was raised, and in the Streilwolf case the same question was raised concerning a decree granted to the husband in North Dakota. In both these cases the decrees were held to be invalid because neither the husband nor wife had resided in the state in which the divorce was granted. "Therefore," said Justice Gray, "the decrees are not entitled to credit." In these cases the finding of the New York courts were affirmed.

Some Coming, Others Going.

San Francisco, April 15.—The transport Thomas brought back from the Philippines the headquarters and First and Third battalions of the Thirtieth-fifth volunteer regiment, consisting of 29 officers and 533 men, and all of the Twenty-fifth volunteer regiment comprising 33 officers and 1,035 men. The remainder of the Thirty-fifth regiment is on the transport Rosecrans, due here in a few days. The Lawton left Nagasaki a day ahead of the Thomas and is due at this port. Nothing was seen of the transport Gironde by the Thomas, although the Gironde left Nagasaki five days ahead of her with the Twenty-sixth regiment. The transport Logan sailed for Manila with two companies of the First Infantry, the Third squadron of the Ninth Cavalry, the Second squadron of the Tenth Cavalry and a battalion of the Eleventh Infantry. The animal transport Thury sails for Manila with several hundred horses and 1,500 tons of supplies. The Ohio is to sail at noon Tuesday carrying troops aboard.

Millinery Tariff Cases.

Washington, April 15.—Attention of treasury officials was called to the report that the famous "hat trimmings" cases were being settled with the result that the $20,000,000 claimed by the importers had been cut down to about $4,000,000. Assistant Secretary Spaulding said these cases had been in process of settlement by the courts a long time, and he had understood the end was drawing near, but he did not know how much the government would be compelled to refund to the importers. The cases arose under the tariff act of 1883. Goods classed by importers as "hat trimmings" dutiable at 20 per cent were appraised by the government as dress goods, etc., which, under the tariff act, were assessed at 50 per cent. The larger duty was paid under protest.

French General Died Suddenly.

Yonne, France, April 15.—General Gras, inventor of the rifle which bears his name, died here of apoplexy.

BARON FAVA'S SUCCESSOR.

Marquis Obizzo to be Ambassador for Italy at Washington.

Washington, April 15.—The state department has been advised through the American ambassador at Rome and the Italian foreign office that Baron Fava will be succeeded as ambassador from Italy to the Marquis Obizzo Mallspino di Carbonara, at present minister for Italy in the Argentine republic. The marquis has had a wide diplomatic experience and served in Washington as one of the attachés of the Italian legation about 10 years ago. He will receive a substantial promotion by his new appointment rising from the rank of minister to that of ambassador.

Baron Fava, the retiring ambassador is a man of remarkable diplomatic experience, his service in behalf of his country covering some of the most exciting periods in the Italian history. He is about 65 years old and began his diplomatic career as secretary of the ministry at Triest, Kingdom of Naples. He had subsequently taken a prominent part in a successful effort to federate the Italian states, and re-entering the diplomatic service under the famous Cavour ministry, he became first secretary at Berne. Thence in turn he went to The Hague, to Constantinople, to Roumania, and finally to Buenos Ayres, where he was minister, just as his successor is to-day. Baron Fava came to Washington in 1881, so he has seen 20 years continuous service at Washington.

Presidential Appointments.

Washington, April 15.—The president appointed John G. Capers to be attorney of the United States for the district of South Carolina; Edgar Russell to be signal officer of volunteers, with the rank of major, and a number of army surgeons for volunteers. The appointment of John G. Capers will be a great surprise to residents of South Carolina. He will succeed Abial Lathrop. Mr. Capers has been an attorney in the department of justice about eight years, having come here during the Cleveland administration. In 1896 he refused to support Bryan for president, and again worked against the Democratic candidate in 1900.

Reedy company, Cincinnati, $25,000; Bevils Church of the United Brethren in Christ, Bevils; Northern Ohio Railroad company, Toledo, certificate as to change of termini; Bettsville Brick and Tile company, Bettsville, increase from $10,000 to $25,000; Youngstown Iron and Steel Roofing company, Youngstown, amendment enlarging purpose; Westbourne Real Estate company, Zanesville, $50,000; Lakewood Savings and Banking company, Lakewood, 25,000; Cleveland, Elyria and Western Railway company, Berea, amendment enlarging purpose.

Wall Street Rumor.

New York, April 15.—It is reported among Wall street men that the visit of J. Pierpont Morgan to Europe has somewhat to do with the interests of Mexico. It is even suggested that President Diaz has commissioned the New York financier to sound the powerful foreign interests on plans that may lead to the establishment of a New Mexican government financial policy, even a movement along conservative lines toward the establishment of the gold standard.

Not Constitutional.

Washington, April 15.—The supreme court handed down a decision in the case of Fairbanks vs. The United States, which involved the constitutionality of the war revenue law imposing a tax upon export bills of lading. The court decided against the government, holding that provision of the law not constitutional. Justices Harlan, Gray, White and McKenna dissented.

Sporious Mint Raided.

Sioux Falls, S. D., April 15.—A house was raided here by the federal authorities and a complete counterfeiting outfit, consisting of dies, metal tools, was confiscated. Levi Clark was arrested on the charge of being a counterfeiter. Much spurious coin has been passed recently in this and the adjoining country by the gang.

He Confessed.

Carbondale, Ill., April 15.—Several days ago a letter was found at the door of Murray Dean's place of business, demanding $8,000 under penalty of destroying his property. Frank Lynch, a farmer living near Ava, has been placed in jail charged with the crime. He confessed.

ORDERED OUT OF TOWN

Carrie Nation Is Practically Barred Out of Kansas City.

HEAVY FINE HANGS OVER HER HEAD.

Told by the Court That Missouri Atmosphere Is Not congenial to Long-haired Men, Short-haired Women and Whistling Girls.

Kansas City, Mo., April 15.—Mrs. Carrie Nation, who was arrested on a charge of obstructing the streets, was arraigned before Police Judge McAuley, fined $500 and given until 6 o'clock p. m. to leave the city, the fine to stand suspended during her absence. The judge warned Mrs. Nation if she was found in the city after that hour she would be arrested and placed in jail. She agreed to leave town and 15 minutes later boarded a street car for Kansas City, Kan.

Mrs. Nation appeared in court early, accompanied by her brother and a woman friend. The court room was literally jammed with people, and the people filled the doorway and crowded the hall. Several cases were called before Mrs. Nation's, and she watched the proceedings with manifest impatience. When Judge McAuley finally asked Mrs. Nation what she had to say to the charge against her, she arose instantly and delivered herself of a fierce tirade against police and court. She pleaded that she was merely waiting for a car when arrested, and was making the best of her time in the meantime by talking to the crowd that had gathered.

A policeman testified that several cars went by with Mrs. Nation making an attempt to board any of them. This caused Mrs. Nation's ire to rise and she flatly denied the statement. "There was no car in sight," she snapped, "and I want you to know that I am a lady and tell the truth."

Judge McAuley then gave his decision and warned Mrs. Nation not to come to town again. "Missouri atmosphere," he said, "is not adapted to long-haired men, short-haired women and whistling girls."

The crowd applauded loudly at the decision. Mrs. Nation submitted mildly and promised to leave the city immediately, remarking that "the town was filled to overflowing with hell broth." A crowd of several hundred people followed the saloon smasher as she left the courtroom and made for a car, and soon saw her start for the Kansas state line.

The fine will be held over Mrs. Nation in case she should return to the city, and until she is released from the court's order she is practically barred from visiting Kansas City. Mrs. Nation pleaded that she wished to go to Liberty, Mo., within a few days and asked if she would be permitted to pass through Kansas City en route. Judge McAuley answered in the affirmative, but warned Mrs. Nation not to stop off here.

Weaving Web About Wright.

Pittsburg, April 15.—Edward W. Wright, who killed Detective Patrick Fitzgerald last Friday while resisting arrest for the alleged murder and robbery of Grocerian Kahney, is rapidly recovering at Mercy hospital. He occasionally asks about his wife and shows great devotion to her. Mrs. Wright, Mrs. Wilcox, the two men, Robert D. Wilcox and John W. Wright, who were captured with Edward Wright, are still in jail. The police bureau is using every effort to fasten the murder of Kahney upon the accused, and every hour the detective discovers some fact of importance in the web they are weaving about the prisoners accused of it.

Ripley on the Stand.

Frankfort, Ky., April 15.—When the trial of Captain Ripley was resumed Monday afternoon the defendant took the stand and denied personal acquaintance with any of the alleged conspirators, except Taylor, who, he says, he met only late prior to the assassination. As to the conversation with ex-Governor Taylor, he said: "These are horrible times, and some free possible crank is liable to kill Goddard and me, too."

MANILA, April 13.—The trial of Sergeant Memison, the first case in the commissary scandal, began with the startling disclosures expected. Two witnesses testified that quantities of flour were taken from Government warehouse, and sold by three commissary sergeants, and two others, who divided the proceeds. Finnick, proprietor of an American bakery, was incriminated, and other business men were also involved. The extent of the illegal sales has not been ascertained.

But Gen. MacArthur would have us believe these commissary stealings are of "no consequence."

SOME TIMELY ADVICE FROM THE TIMES-STAR.

The following from the Cincinnati Times-Star concerning "the fear of smallpox" contains some timely advice on a subject that has proved a very expensive one to the people of Kentucky in recent years:

Wild excitement was caused in a cheap New York boarding-house the other day by the suspicion that one of the boarders had smallpox. The alleged victim—a small Hungarian girl, who could speak little English—had been in distress for several nights. At first she was disinclined to divulge her trouble, but after much persuasion she attempted to explain. The effort was severe, but after much difficulty she was enabled to impress upon her anxious audience the fact that she had not been able to sleep for several nights. Then she laid her arm. It was covered with a number of red blotches. The spectators were at once thrown into a panic and hurried from the room. Their only belief was that the girl was the victim of a malignant case of smallpox. It is needless to say that this particular boarding-house was not a thickly populated portion of the metropolis for the rest of the day. Crowds stood at a little distance, however, and abated for their absence by the loudness of their excited and fearful chatter on the dread disclosure of the morning.

Finally a doctor arrived upon the scene and discovered that the whole trouble was caused by bedbugs. Blotches, lack of sleep, everything, was caused by the attacks of these insects of the night. The excitement at once quieted down, but the outraged landlady threatened to sue the guilty persons who gave the character of her beds such uncalled-for notoriety.

There is a moral in this tale of the smallpox and the bedbugs. There seems to be a magic in the former name which enables its merest mention to throw otherwise sensible people into a panic. Pneumonia, consumption, typhoid, all the terrors of our modern life, are allowed to go on their way with scarcely a thought. Virus-tamed smallpox, however, is still a terror, and its slightest appearance is the sign for a miniature reign of terror in the afflicted neighborhood. Stop spitting in public conveyances, boil your typhoid-laden water and let smallpox take care of itself, except for the occasional administration of a little vaccine! The result will be a much smaller death rate in the future than there has ever been in the smallpox-careful, but consumption-and-typhoid-carless past.

Holds Up a Congressman.

"At the end of the last campaign," writes Champ Clark, Missouri's brilliant Congressman, "from overwork, nervous tension, loss of sleep and constant speaking I had almost utterly collapsed. RIPLEY'S STORY.

Says Ex-Governor Bradley and Judge Yost Were Substantially Correct, but He Meant to Say Something Else.

The trial of Capt. Garnet Ripley for implication in the assassination of Governor Goebel was resumed Monday with Ripley himself on the stand. Ripley testified that he knew Taylor from January, 1900. Yost was pointed out to him after that time. He had seen Jim Howard and Powers since his incarceration in jail.

He met Taylor first January 16th and talked with him about a military company at Pleasureville, which the defendant had been trying to get up. Taylor was favorable to it and he (Ripley) came back again Jan. 29th to make final arrangements about the equipment of the company. He again called on Taylor, and found him looking hadly and remarked upon the fact. Taylor replied: "These are horrible times, and some irresponsible crank is likely to kill Mr. Goebel." The witness said he thought the situation not that bad, and went to ask Taylor about the military company. "My God, is that company not ready yet?"

The defendant said these were the only occasions he was in Frankfort prior to the assassination. He was never in Frankfort at a meeting of the Republicans incidental to the gubernatorial contest. The matter of the organization of a military company at Pleasureville, Ripley said, had been in contemplation by him two or three years. Taylor went with the defendant to the Adjutant General and gave orders for its organization. Witness said he asked Taylor whether it was necessary to get an order from the County Judge for the organization of the military company. Taylor said this was not necessary, as Governor Bradley had mustered in companies without consulting County Judges.

His company was mustered in Jan. 27th, and the defendant elected Captain. At this meeting it was arranged that Ripley should come to Franklin to look after the equipments, and he came on the 29th, the day on which the conversation with Taylor occurred.

On the evening of Jan. 30th the defendant received a special delivery letter from Governor Taylor, ordering his company to Frankfort at once. The letter made no mention of the assassination, which took place that forenoon. He went to Eminence and arranged for the transportation of the company on a freight which left Eminence early the next morning.

He contradicted the testimony of Witnesses Ferguson and Crawford as to the alleged abusive remarks concerning Goebel, and denied that he ever said he had been attending Republican meetings, and that Goebel would never be seated. As to the conversation with Bradley and Yost, the witness said he had only an indistinct recollection of the conversation, and now thinks they were substantially correct, but what witness meant to say to them was what he related on the witness stand in the earlier part of the day, and that he did not intend the construction they put on it. He admitted seeing W. B. Thorne, and as to the statement made to him, said he merely meant that things were in an excited state at Frankfort, and that Thorne's son would be better off at home. He never knew Wharton Golden, and never said anything to Collier about buying Winchesters for his company such as Golden testified to Saturday.

The direct examination concluded at 3 o'clock, and the cross-examination followed.

Miss Mary Hudnut is very ill at her home on Front street.

Thomas H. Burt has sold to Wm. A. Morrison a lot at Springdale for $150.

The preliminary trial of John Banks on charge of horse-stealing is set for 2 o'clock before Squire Grant. Banks is about seventy-five years old.

Howard T. Cree, the eloquent young minister of the Christian Church, has received a call from the Central Christian Church of St. Louis, one of the largest in that city. He has the matter under consideration, but has not yet decided to leave Maysville. If he should conclude to accept the call, he will remain in charge of the church here until next October. The many friends of himself and wife, in and out of the church, would sincerely regret to see them leave Maysville, and hope they will decide to remain with us many years yet.

PROF. COLER'S LECTURES.

His Talks on the Life of Christ and on Genesis Highly Interesting and Instructive.

The Bible lectures and studies that are being given at the Christian Church this week by Prof. G. P. Coler, of Ann Arbor University, are proving highly interesting and edifying, and should be heard, not only by every Bible student, but by all others who are interested in these great questions. His talk last night on the first eleven chapters of Genesis was especially instructive. He took advantage of the opportunity to correct some of the false views of the Bible, stating that it is not a book on science, not a book on philosophy, not a book of history, but a book of religion, to communicate religious truths. It emphasizes the supremacy of God, man's kinship to God; gives concrete examples of wrong doing and its awful consequences; gives concrete examples of right living and its results, and it gives to the world Christ, and the church as the great medium through which God reaches man. He would not have an expurgated Bible, because such a Bible would not set forth sin in its most hideous forms, and its worst consequences.

Prof. Coler will talk this afternoon at 3 o'clock on "The Baptism and Temptation of Jesus," and to-night at 7:30 on "Abraham."

Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock, the subject will be on "The Trials of Jesus," and many who recently heard Hon. A. M. J. Cochran on this subject will no doubt be present to hear Prof. Coler.

W. W. LAMAR.

Death Claims a Former Well Known Business Man of This City—The End Came Last Evening.

The venerable Colonel W. W. Lamar, whose critical condition was mentioned Monday, died last evening at 6:30 o'clock at the Cincinnati Hospital. About two weeks ago he fell while in the Chamber of Commerce building, that city, and sustained injuries that hastened his death. The accident brought on a stroke of paralysis, and for several days he had been at death's door.

Colonel Lamar was born Dec 8th, 1811, and was consequently in his ninetieth year. He was a native of Saugus, Md., but came to Maysville in early manhood, and was engaged in the drygoods business here for forty years, a part of the time in the building now known as the Red Corner, and later in the building now occupied by D. Hunt & Son.

After leaving Maysville he spent four years in Cincinnati, and then removed to Aurora, Ind., where the rest of his life was spent. His wife died in 1890. Seven children survive him, four daughters and three sons.—Mrs. Josephine Greer, of Covington, Mrs. F. M. Munson, of Newcastle, Del., Mrs. Merrill Burlingame, of St. Louis, Mrs. B. W. Goodman, of this city, Howard, of Oklamona, Harry B., of Terre Haute, Ind., and Blake, of Aurora. Mr. Lamar had a wide circle of old friends in this city and county whom he delighted to meet on his visits here, and recall with them incidents of his younger days.

The remains will be removed to-day to his home at Aurora, where the funeral will take place Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock.

THE SUCCESSFUL CITY.

It is Built Up Primarily by Small and Diversified Industries. Rather Than by Large Plants.

(Manufacturer's Record.)

Not many years ago Scotland Neck, N. C., was a town to which people from the surrounding county came to buy goods made at distant points. The Commonwealth, the weekly paper of the town, realizing that there was nothing for the growth of the town in mere trading, began to agitate for factories. In its desperation, after months of unsuccessful agitation for factories, it said that even a tanyard would be better than nothing. At the time the paper was contending for a cotton mill. Its efforts in this direction were finally successful, and it now has the satisfaction of recording the fact that after the first knitting mill came other mills and other kinds of manufacturing establishments, until to-day the weekly pay-rolls amount to $1,100. This amount may not appear great, but it is just $1,100 more than the amount of money earned in the town ten years ago, and is an apt illustration of the advantages accruing from the location of industries in any community.

The spirit of the Commonwealth has been manifested in hundreds of Southern towns, and even in cities which already have a high standing industrially. For example, at the last annual meeting of the Chamber of Commerce of Charlotte, N. C., Mr. R. M. Miller, Jr., Chairman of the committee on manufacturers' interests, made a report strongly advocating an increased water supply, better facilities for small and cheap units of power, either steam, electric or gas, and the erection of a manufacturing apartment building for the encouragement of small industries with a common source of power. He recalled the fact that the largest mill in North Carolina to-day is an evolution from a small plant of a few years ago, and that another small cotton mill, which cost $100,000 five years ago, has since that time paid its stockholders $40,000, and he made the point that the successful manufacturing city is built up primarily by small and diversified industries, rather than by large single plants.

In Texas individuals and organizations are conducting a persistent campaign for the establishment of industries which will work up natural resources of the State into wealth. Mr. John Howard, one of these workers, instances at Athens a pottery plant started about three years ago by a young man from Illinois with a few dollars saved from his daily earnings, which is now shipping its wares by the car-load to different points, and a fire-brick plant, the products of which are in demand all over Texas, and at Elgin a press brick plant, and he asserts that the experience of men of limited means at these points in building up large manufacturing concerns may be duplicated elsewhere.

So the story runs through the South. Here and there modest beginnings are growing into substantial industries and are contributing their quota to the material advance of the whole South.

PORTO RICO A COUNTRY OF FARMS.

(From World's Work.)
Of the 933,243 population of Porto Rico only 75,000 live in cities. On the island but 100 miles long and thirty-six miles wide are 40,000 district farms and one-fifth of the island under cultivation. The average size of a farm in Porto Rico is forty-five acres, of which twelve are cultivated. Seventy-one per cent. of these Porto Rican farms are owned by whites and the rest by negroes. Ninety-three per cent. of all the farms are cultivated by their owners, a higher rate of owner cultivation than the United States can show, where the proportion is but 72 per cent. Thirty-eight per cent. of Porto Ricans are colored. In Porto Rico 83 per cent. of the colored people are of mixed blood. The percentage of illiteracy in Porto Rico is very high—about 84.

TO MASON COUNTY DEMOCRATS.

As an aspirant, with the determination to try and win the Democratic nomination for Assessor of Mason County, I have made, as I believe within the past two months, a thorough canvass of the county, and finding a decided preference prevailing among the Democratic voters for Mr. W. H. Hawes for said office, in consideration for his long continued party loyalty and his pre-eminent qualifications for the duties pertaining to the office of County Assessor, and becoming convinced that he can and will be nominated and elected, I seize this opportunity and method of announcing my withdrawal from said race as principal and accepting a deputyship under him, pledging my earnest support to Mr. Hawes as the choice of the majority, upon whom all Democrats can gracefully unite, and with whom we can establish perfect harmony and march to victory in November.

Hoping my friends will support Mr. Hawes, I am, yours for Democracy, J. F. POLLITTE.
